

What's Your Vision?

What does the world look like for you when you've achieved all your goals?

What emotions do you experience when thinking about your vision?

What do you dream of achieving?

What topics do I find myself constantly discuss or think about?

When do I feel most alive and engaged?

“Action without vision is a nightmare.”

James Kerr